

Chrysanthos D. Tassis

Chrysanthos D. Tassis is Lecturer of Political Sociology and Greek Politics at the Department of Public Administration and Political Science at Democritus University of Thrace, Greece. He has been adjunct lecturer at the Department of Political Science and International Relations at the University of Peloponnese, Greece and he is currently collaborating academic staff at Greek Open University.

In 2017, he received a scholarship for the Study of the US Institute for Scholars on American Politics and Political Thought, Donahue Institute, University of Massachusetts, USA.

Chrysanthos D. Tassis is co-editor of the collective volume PASOK 1974 - 2018: Political Organisation - Ideological Shifts - Governmental Policies, Athens, Gutenberg, 2018 (with V. Asimakopoulos). Moreover, he has published the books PASOK: The Rise and Fall (?) of a Hegemonic Political Party, Athens, Savvalas, 2013 (with K. Eleftheriou), The Party of European Socialists (PES): Challenges and Future Prospects, Athens, ISTAME, 2001 (with M. Spourdalakis (ed.), K. Botopoulos, T. Xiros), and the Study N. 78, Regional and Sectoral Efficiency of the Greek Economy: Measurement and Determinants, Athens, KEPE, 2017, (with S. Papaioannou (ed.), T. Tsekeris). Moreover, he has published in Greek and English Journals in the field of political sociology with an emphasis on political parties' relation to society, and the state; on European Social Democracy; on Greek politics; on political economy and labour relations; and on the welfare state.

Since 1997 he is a member, of Hellenic Political Studies Association and since 2015 he is a member of its Central Board. Moreover, since 2005 he is a member of Greek Politics Specialist Group of Political Studies Association.