

Nikolaos Ermis

Born in Rethymno, Crete, during the month of August in 1994, and currently residing in Athens. He studied Political Sciences and International Relations (PSIR) in the University of Peloponnese (Corinth) and has carried on with his studies in the University's Postgraduate Program in "Governance and Public Policies".

He is the Founder & CEO of the youth-oriented site offlinepost.gr, where he manages a team of a hundred young professionals across Greece. He has participated in numerous simulations, conventions and seminars addressed to a younger audience, while he has also organized Historical and European summits. At the same time, he is a Governing Board member of the Political Sciences and International Relations (PSIR) Graduates Association.

Currently working in the private sector and, more specifically, in the press department, he has taken up history as an academic area of interest in his free time, as well as the study of Greek songwriting. An English speaker, he is skilled in social relations and communication, due to his work as a volunteer and the various seminars he has participated in.

He has fulfilled his military duties and has been writing articles from a young age, some of which have been published in journalist networks and various websites. In the past, he has worked in a hotel unit that is located in Platanes of Rethymnon, Crete, and has voluntarily participated in the student-curated site millenials.gr as a coordinator and CCO.
